

CKCSCCO Holistic Vet Presentation and monthly meeting

The Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of Central Ohio invites you to a presentation by holistic vet, Dr. James Carlson and our monthly meeting.

When: Saturday, February 11, 2006 at 1:30pm.

What: Do you wonder... What a holistic vet is? How do they treat your dog differently? What are their beliefs in treatments for your pets? How does acupuncture work? Then this is the presentation for you! Dr. James Carlson of the North Worthington Animal Clinic will be giving a presentation on holistic health care for your pets.

We will also be having our regular monthly meeting. Don't forget to bring pictures and neat finds or information for/about our furkids.

Where: Northwest Library, 2280 Hard Road—on Hard Road between Sawmill and Smokey Row Rd at the flashing yellow light in the conference room. The conference room is located right off the lobby through the double wooden doors. This conference room is large - so bring your friends!!

For questions regarding this meeting, please contact Maggie Merry at mmerry@insight.rr.com or 614-325-9808.

